1) Photosynthesis is the process by which plants makes food.

2) Chlorophyll is used to absorb sunlight.

3) Mitochondria is the power house of the cell.

4) tissue is a group of cell

5) Root is used to absorb water

6) Traspiration in plants is a vital process that involves and stems

7) A biological Community of interacting organism and their physical environment

8) The natural home of the animal, plants or other organism

9) Algae is unicellular organism

10) Pollination is a transfer of pollen to plants