Part - I

1) Photosynthesis is process by which plants makes food

2) Cholorophyll is a green pigment found in plants, algae and some bacteria .

3) Mitochondria is a power of the cell

4) A tissue is a group of similar cell

5) Roots absorb water and minerals from the soil

6) Transpiration is the process by which plants lose water in the form of water vapour

7) An ecosystem is a community of living organism interacting with each other

8) An habitat is the natural environment or place where an organism lives, grows and reproduces. and its

Types are Terrestrial Habitat and Aquatic Habitat

10) Pollination is the transfer of pollen grains from the another to the stigma of a flower, Amoeba

9) A unicellular organism is a Living organism made up of a single cell that performs all life

Part- II

11) Photosynthesis is the process by which Absorption of sunlight and water and Intake of Carbon di-oxide

12) Plants can make their own food by photosynthesis and usually do not move, while animals cannot make their own food and can move.

13) Leaf has three main parts: Leaf base, petiole and lamina.

14) He refers to female and she refers to Sam